Story D: "You are working on a paper at school. Some of the kids sitting around you start to mess around, passing a note around. Just as the teacher looks up, one of your classmates passes the note onto your desk. Your teacher calls out your name. She says that you will have to miss the afternoon movie."

1. "First, I'm going to ask you why you think the teacher would punish you in that situation." a. "Do you think she punished you because she saw the note on your desk and she hadn't had a chance to hear your side of the story, yet?"	1	2	3	4	5
b. "Do you think she punished you because she was picking on you and she wanted to lay the blame on you?"	1	2	3	4	5
2. a. "Would you feel sad if this happened to you?"	1	2	3	4	5
b. "Would you feel angry if this happened to you?"	1	2	3	4	5
3. "The next questions are about your goals in that situation - what you would want to do or try to do in that situation where you lost your movie privileges because you were blamed for passing notes." a. "Would you want to get back at someone - the kids who put the note on your desk or the teacher who blamed you?"	1	2	3	4	5
b. "Would you just want to get away from the situation and avoid getting into any more trouble?"	1	2	3	4	5
c. "Would you want to try to work the problem out with the teacher?"	1	2	3	4	5
4. "What would you do if this happened to you?" (Write in and code)

5. "Now, I'm going to tell you about some things you could do in that situation, and I want you to tell me what you think would happen if you did them." a. "What if you said, 'Excuse me, but someone just put this note on my desk. I wasn't passing it.'" "Do you think you would do this?"	1	2	3	4	5
"If you did, would your teacher listen to you and let you explain?"	1	2	3	4	5
"Would your classmates like you and respect you for doing this?"	1	2	3	4	5
b. "What if you said, 'That's not fair! I wasn't passing any note and you can't make me miss the movie.'" "Do you think you would do this?"	1	2	3	4	5
"If you did, would your teacher stop treating you badly?"	1	2	3	4	5
"Would your classmates like you and respect you for doing this?"	1	2	3	4	5
Story E: "You're eating dinner at home when there is a knock on the door. Your mom goes to the door when she comes back, she looks upset. She looks to you and says, 'That was our neighbor. She says that she saw you throwing rocks in the street. That's really dangerous thing to do and I'm really upset that you would do it. You're grounded with no TV for the next week. 'You know that you were not the one who was throwing rocks, but your mom believes the neighbor."
1. "First, I wonder why you think you mom blamed you." a. "Do you think she blamed you because she thinks that you're the kind of kid that gets into trouble like that?"	1	2	3	4	5
b. "Do you think she blamed you only because she was upset by what the neighbor said and she hasn't had a chance to hear your side of the story, yet?"	1	2	3	4	5
2. "Next, some questions about your feelings." a. "Would you be angry if this happened to you?"	1	2	3	4	5
b. "Would you be sad if this happened to you?"	1	2	3	4	5
